Chapter 1 by PuppyLover

I've never known anybody. I've never seen anyone. I don't even know what a somebody is. I am alone. You don't even know what I would give to know somebody, to see somebody, and to know what a human being is. When I look at myself I often wonder what I am. What am I?

Chapter 2 by Exalted Toast

I have no idea what my existence is supposed to be. How did I learn English? Occasionally hearing voices through speakers in the ceiling. I've never seen a human, but I have definitely heard them. Of course, I never get bored down here... probably...

What is boredom? Is it an emotion? Am I supposed to have those? I don't know. Let me just say that life isn't fun if you're alone like me. Maybe I could get out? No. That would be impossible. Suddenly I hear a voice coming through the speakers in the ceiling.

"Good morning, today's the day."

Chapter 3 by Haylee Hotchkiss

I had no idea what it meant but I know it's nothing to stress about. I didn't even know what stress was but it just felt like I did. You have no idea where you are but I think it's time we start.

Its been the same way my entire life. I haven't seen anyone ever, I only heard people, and I have no idea where I am. What else was new. "I just thought that we could try to cooperate with other people." What did he mean by other people?

I heard something beep I think it was the doors to my room. I never even knew it had doors. Once they opened a bright light came through the door opening.
